

THE SECRETS OF TAI CHI (EPISODE 2X)

Welcome back to Jedi Training. The title of this podcast is The Secrets of Tai Chi.

Now, every religion, including Tai Chi, is a gateway to the supernatural.

Everything outside of the realm of scripture, however, is the occult, dark side, supernatural.

But all of these religions are touching on some things that are relevant in our spiritual warfare.

They're using things that were created hardwired into the human existence.

And so, while it's interesting to gather intelligence from the outside world, it's important not to get sucked into the black hole.

And so we can learn a lot from different cultures. We can learn a lot from science.

We can learn a lot from the modern world because it's all about understanding creation.

Whatever somebody else might have discovered about creation is relevant to us.

Because, as Christians, we are fans of creation.

That should be pretty simple to understand.

But, of course, anytime we're talking about the supernatural, you have to be really careful because there are parameters in which we have to comply.

So, there are many things that are available to a human person.

But, some things we're told to stay away from.

Like divination.

Like spiritism.

Consulting spirits that are on the other side.

This can happen.

You can gather information from people on the other side.

But, this is contrary to the parameters of Christianity and, therefore, contrary to the parameters of Jedi.

We are priestly warriors.

However, we are going to talk about Tai Chi because it focuses on a discovery of creation.

Of course, Jedi training is focusing on telekinetics.

And, in order to do that, we have to understand the energy that runs through us.

Mind over matter.

And, that's what Tai Chi is about.

It kind of sucks you in that way and then it tries to convert you to Buddhism.

Which is, obviously, the occult.

The dragon.

If you will.

So, we're going to be focusing on Tai Chi.

We're going to be using some of those techniques in Jedi training.

The reason that we're going to do that is because these are natural abilities.

But, Tai Chi, if you extract it away from its religion, which is Buddhism and the like, then we can learn something there.

So, we're not afraid to learn from other cultures, but we need to filter out anything that would be contrary to scripture.

So, that's what we're going to do.

That's what we're going to attempt to do in this podcast.

So, Tai Chi, essentially, most people are familiar with it.

It looks like slow motion dancing to a certain extent.

It is essentially the training of the person's use of spiritual energy.

And, again, many religions talk about that, spiritual energy, and then they move you to the occult.

So, we're going to be talking about spiritual energy and then moving you towards Christianity.

But, many religions are focusing on internal energy and how to use that in different ways.

And, you know, Tai Chi is using martial arts, in a sense, to basically flow with the energy that is around us.

Essentially, from the point of view of many people, scientists and, you know, religious scholars alike, view the world as basically a form of energy.

And so, everything is energy.

And, you know, if you can spark it or kindle it, then, you know, you can basically set it alight.

Everything has a burning temperature, essentially.

And the amount of energy that's required to make something burn is essentially the spark, if you will.

So, basically, everything is a form of energy.

And in its, you know, stable arrangement, it appears as solid, liquid, or gas.

And as you apply more energy to that matter, it changes, and eventually it will more or less evaporate.

Either, you know, up in smoke or, quite literally, evaporation.

In any case, energy flows through everything around us.

Everything around us is energy.

You know, it's like that equation, Einstein equation.

E equals mc^2 .

Energy equals the mass times the speed of light squared.

Everything is energy.

And it flows through things, and it flows through us.

And we are like bioelectric robots.

Biological robots.

Instead of gas, we just eat sandwiches and the like, and convert that into energy.

And so, essentially, you know, we use all different types of energy to not only function, but to navigate through this matrix.

And so, energy comes in many forms.

It can become many forms.

And we are essentially a fusion of physical energy, spiritual energy.

And, you know, you can unpack this as biochemical and, you know, something else.

But, essentially, Tai Chi is focusing on the person being like a bioelectric generator.

A bioenergetic generator.

And so, we can produce a different type of energy if we want to.

And this energy can be applied in different ways.

And so, knowing about this spiritual energy is not often talked about in Christian circles because we just look at it in a different way.

We don't usually have to apply ourselves in a supernatural way in the normal world, especially today.

So, we don't really talk about it.

But, essentially, we've got an energetic capacity beyond, in fact, what other people have.

Because we're plugged into our creator.

And we are the image bearers of our creator.

And so, our potential is much bigger.

But you really have to crawl before you can walk.

And walk before you can run.

And run before you can fly.

So, we are like a super bioenergetic generator.

That can produce energy in many different forms.

But, to begin, you have to learn how to start that motor.

How to start that generator.

And so, Tai Chi is really kind of like a way to turn your biological energy into a type of spiritual energy that can be applied and projected in local area warfare.

So, we're really kind of like unpacking the whole Twilight Zone into a few different things here.

And yesterday, we were talking about area warfare.

And today, we're talking about the energy that you really need to be able to focus in that area, local area warfare.

And then, beyond, to intergalactic warfare.

So, just thinking about all the things that we have to talk about is just kind of mind-blowing.

But, we'll get there.

But, look.

Over the past month, we've really been trying to prep you like the Karate Kid.

Wax on, wax off.

Know your Bible.

Prepare yourselves.

Prepare yourselves.

You know, physically, mentally, spiritually, financially.

All of that.

You know, all the things that we've gone through.

Or some of the things that we've gone through.

To help you prepare for, you know, what it's like in spiritual warfare.

And then, we kind of, you know, went into warp speed and started talking about the Twilight Zone.

And thinking to myself, yeah, you know, we're skipping quite a few things here.

So, next time, when I do a series like this, I'll be able to organize it better.

This is the first time I've tried to do a Jedi training academy.

But, I think as time goes on, we'll be able to formulate something that works really well.

So, look.

It's okay, though, because I wanted to give you a taste or a preview of what's to come.

And so, hopefully, it's gotten you a little more interested.

But, before we can go beyond that door of the Twilight Zone and really go on expeditions,

And so, you know, the sequence of podcasts here could be improved.

But, I think, you know, I think it's okay just the way it is.

Anyways, getting back on track, moving on here.

We've got some interference from the Matrix.

It's horrendous these days.

I can't even begin to describe the challenges of doing anything and everything.

But, that means it's working.

In any case, Tai Chi.

So, we want to turn our biochemical energy into spiritual energy.

From the physical to the spiritual.

And, you know, Tai Chi will kind of give you a taste of that.

Again, we're not saying that, you know, this is the focus of our life.

But, you have to taste it to understand what we're talking about and how you can use it.

And, a disciplined Christian can taste things and then, you know, know what to do with it.

Responsibly.

Let's not think about that too much.

But, in theory, it's true.

You should be able to taste something and say no.

But, sometimes it's just better to say no.

And, look.

We can have a nice long debate about all of this.

But, in order to move forward in Jedi training, you have to know how to use spiritual energy.

And, Tai Chi is just an example that I like to point out.

Because, I think it's easy for people.

But, it's not the ideal thing.

Like, if I were to do classes in the physical, I wouldn't be calling it Tai Chi.

But, given that we're doing this as a podcast, I feel like this is a helpful example.

And, again, you know, disclaimers have to be put out there.

All other religions are gateways to the supernatural and to the occult.

Okay.

Now that I've said my piece, let's get back on track here.

I know it's irritating, but I have to put these disclaimers in here.

You should be picking up on every little thing that I'm introducing.

Because, it's there for a reason.

So, beware of other religions.

Beware of martial arts.

Beware of all of that yoga and all of that.

It's not what it seems.

But, look.

This is a helpful example.

So, essentially, Tai Chi and the like is the attempt to transfer biological energy into spiritual energy.

And, you know, these people are fascinated with, essentially, the feeling that they get playing with this.

It's like playing with the ether, playing with, you know, magnets, or playing with mercury or something.

It's fascinating.

It's different.

It's, you know, it is what it is.

And so, it keeps them there.

But, what they're feeling is genuine.

And, it's a feeling that you kind of have to experience.

And, you know, there really isn't a better way to guide you through a podcast.

But, if you watch some videos on Tai Chi, essentially, you see them dancing around, basically, in slow motion.

And, the movements are pretty irrelevant.

It's the technique that basically matters.

And, what you're trying to do, essentially, is to sync with not only your internal energy, but the external energy of the ether that's around us.

Essentially, everything that is physical is also embedded in the spiritual world.

And, so, you know, everything has a spiritual component to it in this physical world.

Whether it be a chair that came from a tree, or, you know, a paper towel that came from a tree, or just about any product that you see.

Basically, it started off as a raw material from the earth.

And, at that stage, it was infused with a spiritual component.

And, so, everything is not only energy, but it's spiritual energy.

So, we can describe energy in biochemical terms, and we can describe energy in spiritual terms.

The biochemical is about the physics, but the spiritual is about what's really going on.

And, so, the only way I can describe this as a Christian to a Christian community is that the spiritual world created the physical world.

And, so, the physical world comes from the spiritual world.

And, so, everything is basically half physical and half spiritual.

Period.

But, essentially, this spiritual energy, for the most part, is like an ether, or like...

To be more accurate, like dark matter, in a way.

Like the emptiness of space.

It's mostly darkness out there.

With a few, you know, points of light, or many points of light.

But, essentially, most of what's out there in the ether, you know, outside of, you know...

Outside of the kingdom of heaven, with some people included.

I mean, everything else is basically negative darkness.

Dark energy.

Now, it's complicated because, you know, we could talk about this for a while because...

Everything that is alive has an essence of, you know, positive energy.

And, all of matter is essentially a perfect balance of positive and negative.

Especially in its most stable form.

So, you know, I feel like we're getting sidetracked here.

But, the more you know, the better it is.

So, you know, you look at matter and general chemistry.

You know, it's protons and electrons, positive and negative.

And, all of this comes together like Legos.

And, essentially, the charges balance themselves out.

And, everything is like day and night and positive and negative.

And, you know, as, you know, the people in the Far East would describe it as yin and yang.

Right?

So, we see this balance.

You know, I guess I shouldn't say it's all negative energy.

You know, I feel bad saying that.

But, a lot of what we see out there today is pretty negative.

In any case, the idea of Tai Chi essentially is not only to feel and to produce your own internal energy.

It's also to kind of feel the external energy.

And, essentially, be like a chemist running experiments in that equation.

And, so, it is, you know, pretty fascinating.

You could spend a lot of time, you know, doing that.

And, a lot of people do.

You know, and they meditate.

And, they hug trees and all of that.

But, essentially, there's something to it.

And, there's, you know, camera footage showing, you know, people's auras increase and shrink.

Or, something that, you know, resembles their aura increase and shrink with stimuli, etc., etc.

We know that the human body creates an electromagnetic field.

And, so, you know, there's a lot of complexity to, you know, the human bio-robot, if you will.

But, everything is really complicated.

Almost, you know, too complicated for just one podcast.

Because, you know, when you talk about electromagnetic fields, you're talking about something that is part electric and part magnetic.

And, they tend to travel independently and perpendicular to one another.

And, some type of quantum entanglement.

Now, this is, you know, on the basic unit level.

And, it expands when we're talking about a field.

But, essentially, you have a field and an aura around you that can shrink and increase based on your environment and your condition.

But, it gets even more intense because, you know, these fields can essentially interact like magnets or oppose them, you know, like magnets and the like.

And, you know, it can be modified by human thinking.

And, by, you know, physical form.

So, we don't want to get too complex in this podcast because, you know, we haven't done a podcast on this before.

And, there's a lot of things to think about and talk about when we're presenting, you know, things like this.

But, essentially, the idea of Tai Chi is to generate a type of spiritual energy through movement or motion and thinking and focusing to produce this energy and to apply it somehow.

Now, how you apply it is another story.

But, how you generate it, essentially, is something like learning how to filter out conversations in a crowded room when you're talking to someone.

You know, you really have to focus and kind of process.

But, it comes naturally.

To a certain extent.

In any case.

What's important for you as a trainee, if you will, at this stage.

Is to watch a couple of Tai Chi videos.

And, try to get an idea for, like, you know, the overall general movements that they're doing.

You know, they're out in an open space.

They're almost, you know, pretty much one with nature.

It's a natural, calm environment.

And, essentially, you know, you basically want to close your eyes.

Remember these general movements and patterns.

And, essentially, you want to, basically, get a feel for what's inside you and what's going on outside of you.

And, you're doing this in a type of slow motion way.

In fact, you'll feel when you're kind of, like, at the right speed in your motions.

Because, you'll almost feel like there's a little resistance from the ambient environment.

But, eventually, what you really want to get at is feeling the energy in your hands.

And, so, you know, this is going to take, you know, hopefully, you know, a couple days or a couple weeks for some of you to figure out.

Maybe some of you have already felt this.

But, what you're looking for is, basically, when you start bringing your hands together.

You start feeling like you have two opposing magnets in your hands a little bit.

You can almost feel like there's a force pushing back.

And, you almost kind of, like, want to imagine that you're condensing an energy ball in between your hands.

And, that you can feel the compression.

You can feel like you're condensing an energy ball in between your hands.

So, that's basically where you need to get to.

And, you know, listening to a whole lot of Tai Chi probably isn't going to help.

But, the more time you spend here without it being, you know, an obsession, the faster you'll be able to advance in telekinetics.

And, so, in yesterday's, you know, broadcast, we were talking about, you know, our encounters with this type of bioelectric energy in, you know, modern situations.

Getting a static shock.

Playing with a Tesla coil.

What happens when you point your finger when you're connected to a Tesla coil.

What happens when you have, like, a metal object in your hand.

You know, these are all going to be ideas that we're going to come back to later.

But, being aware of your potential is basically the beginning of, you know, is the real beginning of this training.

Realizing that, you know, this is possible and this stuff is out there and it's pretty much well documented.

Will help you overcome, you know, some doubt and disbelief.

And, that's important because otherwise it holds you back and it just, you know, basically destroys your motivation.

And, you know, what's the point?

And, you know, what am I doing here?

And, all of that.

And, so, hopefully we got your mouth watering.

And, now you basically have to learn how to play with your energetic potential.

And, so, Tai Chi is a real good way to, you know, learn the basics and all of that.

And, like I said, I think a lot of them, hopefully, just kind of, you know, keep it for themselves.

As a way to improve their life force.

But, essentially, as Christians fighting evil from heavenly places.

Intergalactic places.

This is going to be instrumental.

So, we've said a lot for, basically, a small objective.

And, that objective is to be able to feel the energy in your hands.

And, so, maybe some of you have already experienced this.

Maybe some of you have not.

And, that's why, look, I mean, you basically have to spend a little time here.

Experimenting.

For yourself.

You have this potential, but, you know, if, if you've let yourself go, you know, over the years.

Then, you've got some, some catching up to do.

But, it's not because, you know, you're a little overweight that you can't do this.

But, the better, you know, physical form you're in.

The better mental form you're in.

The better spiritual form you'll be in.

In a sense, as well.

Especially for combat.

And, this is what this is all about.

Preparing you for combat.

And, so, eventually, we're going to talk about applying this energy in different theaters of war.

But, it's all useful.

You know, look, I mean, in theory, you could just, you know, walk around, you know, cursing the heathen.

And, that would be, you know, that would be pretty good.

But, you know, when it comes from a real, you know, solid Christian heart that's, you know, of true morals and value.

You know, a curse is a heavy thing.

But, essentially, our goal here is to make you a well-rounded operative fighting evil.

And, that is the core of what we're doing here.

We want to fight evil on every level that it exists.

You know.

So, we spend a lot of time, you know, fighting it on the internet.

But, you know, essentially, wherever evil is, we want to confront it.

We want to challenge it.

And, we want to, you know, scatter it abroad.

We want to disperse it.

We want to terrorize it.

And, so, we want to be operatives in every domain.

And, so, I think the basic stuff, I mean, most people have figured out, right?

So, the real basic stuff is, you know, as far as challenging evil is evangelism.

You know, doing good.

Being charitable.

Being a, you know, a role model.

Living up to your responsibilities.

So, I think, you know, that's, you know, that's a way to challenge evil on the ground level.

Like, on, you know, on the real basic kind of way.

But, as people of supernatural faith, essentially, eventually we come to the understanding that, you know, this is a metaphysical conflict.

And, so, our aim here is, again, to challenge evil on every domain that it exists.

And, some of it is physical.

Some of it is on the internet.

And, you know, most of it is basically in its home territory.

And, that's where we have to go eventually.

That's the door of the twilight zone.

You have to see these entities for what they are in their home territory.

And, fight them there.

And, the only way to get there is through telekinetics.

There's no missile.

There's no bullet that can hit these things for what they are.

So, we'll get more into that.

But, essentially, you know, evil is embedded to a certain extent in just about everything that's out there these days.

But, it's a plague that's coming from somewhere.

And, that's, you know, the reservoir of this virus.

And, like we were saying in a podcast, you know, a couple days ago.

Essentially, what we're dealing with is a type of spiritual virus that goes from dead planets to living planets.

And, it's like a type of necrosis or, like, mold or something.

And, it, you know, invades a planet, infects a planet, infects people, and then just basically corrupts the planet.

The planet self-destructs, essentially.

And, the virus continues to propagate.

It looks like this has been happening for quite some time.

But, as we can see now, it's, you know, it's much worse than it's ever been.

And, it's like, you know, the planet is in an advanced form of decay.

So, that's why there's an urgent need for drastic intervention from people like us.

And, you know, if you've got a strong background in Christian doctrine, then you're a good candidate for spiritual warfare.

I mean, everybody's heard of spiritual warfare.

But, this is where it's really at.

And, you know, hopefully in the future we can train more people.

We're going to launch a ministry eventually.

And, try to drag some of those folk into Jedi training as well.

And, you know, this isn't about something that's self-serving.

I mean, for this kind of training, I mean, we could be charging like, you know, basically a thousand dollars a person.

This is about getting people enlisted.

Getting people committed.

Getting people serious about spiritual warfare.

And, you know, running these operations isn't free.

We've been doing this basically out of pocket for the last ten years.

But, you know, being able to basically support ourselves while we fight evil is definitely something that we'd like to accomplish.

In any case, spiritual warfare basically means that we're going into the enemy territory.

Or, wherever the enemy is at.

And, taking them out.

And, so, casting out demons was our first clue to this type of warfare.

You know, that is basically the distinct, the distinctive mark of the Gospels, if you will.

It's the spiritual warfare.

We don't see this in Scripture previous to that, really.

But, Jesus tells us that we can fight back.

And, we can do a lot of things.

A lot of terrible things.

To the enemy.

Now, you know, that conclusion is, is an opinion of mine.

Based on, you know, Scripture.

When Jesus tells us he came not to bring peace, but a sword.

And, so, if it's not peace, it's war.

And, you know, the enemies of, you know, your worst enemies will be from your very own household.

And, here's what you do to the fig tree.

And, you can move mountains and do much more.

And, so, you know, this isn't, you know, the main plot of the Gospels.

But, it's definitely there for us to put together and apply.

So, you know, I feel like it's almost unorthodox based on contemporary religions out there.

But, we're weaponizing the fig tree, in a sense.

And, we're fighting this enemy wherever it is.

Because, that's what warfare is all about.

So, we're going to be aggressive.

And, you know, while you can work all by yourself, you know, that's certainly not the way Jesus did it.

And, he sent out his disciples, you know, to cast out demons, to wage spiritual warfare.

And, the plan here is to do the same.

To harmonize our attacks.

To, you know, get people active in their area.

And, you know, one person can make a huge difference.

One person with this skill set can make a huge difference.

So, if we can get, you know, ten people on that path.

Or, a hundred people on that path.

Or, a thousand people on that path.

I mean, that's huge.

Stuff that we're going to be talking about.

Goes way beyond where, you know, anybody has gone before.

For the most part.

Every expedition is...

Like a trip in the book of Revelations and back.

And then some.

So.

So, your mission right now is to learn how to generate spiritual energy that you can feel in your hands.

And, we'll be using our hands as...

Basically, a...

Spiritual projector.

If you will.

In conjunction with our...

Mind, body, and soul.

But, essentially...

You know, the hand is like...

A main output.

Your mouth is a main output.

Your eyes are a main output.

But...

Your hands are pretty instrumental.

So, at this stage...

Go watch a couple Tai Chi movies.

Not Kung Fu movies.

Tai Chi.

Go out there and try to replicate the motions.

You're basically slow motion dancing.

Slowing down until you can kind of feel like you're...

You're pushing back against something.

With your hands...

In the ether.

You have to go...

Sometimes really super slow to start feeling it.

And then you push a little more.

And you push a little bit more.

And...

You know, you're moving around in slow motion.

Trying to feel the ether around you.

And...

You know, there's a lot of things to talk about when it comes to...

Breathing techniques.

You know, in through the nose.

Out through the mouth.

You know, inhale, exhale, fresh air.

You know, and push as you're exhaling.

And...

You know...

Play with the ether.

I mean, this is where it really begins in a certain extent.

Because...

Now you can see what kind of impact you can have on your local environment.

And then you can scale this up.

And weaponize this.

Of course, you know, we'll get back into target selection.

In a future podcast.

But...

For the time being here, we're basically...

Learning to...

Appreciate everything that is in creation.

And sometimes, you know...

You learn from other cultures.

You learn from other people.

But you...

Know the secret as far as where all of this comes from.

And as Christians, that means that we're even more connected to creation than...

Other people.

Why would that be?

So you need to think about that while you're doing Tai Chi.

Why are we closer to the creator than other people?

Why are we closer to creation than other people?

Why are we more connected?

And...

Why do we have more authority?

And so...

To a certain extent, as Christians, we're like the center of the known universe.

And as image bearers of our creator, we're very special.

And we should never forget about that.

But there's a lot of...

Things that we need to learn about our potential.

So...

Go out there and practice.

And...

And...

Get a feel for what's out there.

And if you need guidance, then, you know, watch some Tai Chi videos.

And they'll try and, you know, give you their version of what's going on.

But...

What we're aiming to do here is to replicate...

The movements...

And the theories so that we can feel...

The spiritual energy...

That was put here...

At the time of creation.

And so...

Again...

Where you really want to get at here is...

Like...

If you had two magnets in your hands...

One in each hand...

And you have, like...

This feeling...

You know, when you bring them together that...

They're pushing each other back a little bit.

It probably won't be as strong as the magnets...

But...

It's the general idea.

You'll feel it if you're doing it right.

You'll feel like...

You can almost compress like an energy ball...

In between your hands.

And you may even see it.

But of course...

It begins by...

Your imagination.

Because your imagination...

Essentially...

Will make things...

Happen...

In the physical.

And the stronger your...

Belief...

And the stronger your experience...

The stronger will be your projection.

So at first...

Your projection is...

You know...

Probably going to be a little fizzle...

Or a little spark...

Or a little nothing.

But...

But...

As you keep practicing...

And...

And...

Experimenting...

You'll gain confidence...

That...

You can manifest things...

In a spiritual way.

In an energetic way.

And so...

You know...

You know...

It takes a lot of energy...

A lot of energy...

To turn an idea...

Into something that's physical...

Like truly physical...

Like a tree.

And so we're...

Obviously...

You know...

Not there yet...

Or ever going to get there.

But...

We have...

Some of that...

Potential...

A fraction...

A very small fraction...

Of that potential...

We may not be able to make...

A real tree...

But we can make something...

That is...

Slightly energetic...

In the form of a tree...

And we can do so much more.

But start with an energy ball...

Start imagining...

You have an energy ball...

In between your hands...

As you're...

Compressing them together...

Getting them closer...

And closer...

And you know...

You basically...

You know...

Pull them out...

Bring them in...

Pull them out...

Bring them in...

Ever so slightly...

Like you're compressing...

Like a basketball...

Or something...

You know...

Pushing your hands together...

On a basketball...

So you might want to start...

With that first...

You know...

Get a basketball...

Put it in your hands...

Push on it...

Get that feeling...

Of like how much...

You know...

Movement you can get on it...

It's just a little bit...

That's basically the movement...

That you're going to want to try...

And reproduce...

Slowly...

In slow motion...

Until you can feel the energy...

Until you can feel the compression...

And then try with a couple of magnets...

In your hands...

And you know...

Get that feeling of what it's like...

When they're...

You know...

Pulling each other together...

And pushing each other apart...

You get that feeling for...

Action at a distance...

That...

Two things...

Can actually...

You know...

Produce a force...

That you can feel...

But you can't see...

And that's a real important concept...

So you probably want to spend...

Like a good hour...

Playing with magnets...

And just...

You know...

Really kind of thinking about...

You know...

This force...

That you can't see...

You just...

Call it...

You know...

Magnetism...

Or a magnetic field...

Or a magnetic force...

Right...

But...

What you're really looking at...

Is something invisible...

That...

You can feel...

That pushes and pulls...

One object or another...

And so you really have to be familiar with those concepts...

And practice in a natural environment...

And...

You know...

This basic skill...

Will be...

Scaled up...

And applied in...

Intergalactic...

Telekinetic warfare...

Once we're ready to go beyond...

The door...

Of...

The twilight zone...

So...

Again...

Instructing you over...

You know...

Through a podcast...

Is difficult...

All I can tell you is that...

What we're talking about...

Is beyond real...

Beyond effective...

And it is...

Perhaps...

The best weapon...

That humanity has...

In defense...

Of this...

Intergalactic...

Demonic...

Alien...

Invasion...

This spiritual virus...

That is...

Spreading...

Through our world...

So...

It's a lot to take in...

But the more we talk about it...

The more you'll...

Become accustomed to these ideas...

And so there's not much we can do about the sheeple...

The sheeple...

But what we can do is...

Fight for...

The glory of the kingdom...

Of heaven...

And...

Be the best gladiators that we can be...

We'll have to leave it there for this podcast...

Appreciate everybody tuning in...

Until the next time...

If you're listening to this...

You are...

The Resistance...

Thank you.
