

TELEKINETIC TARGET SELECTION (EPISODE 31)

Welcome back to Jedi Training. The title of this podcast is Target Selection.

Target Selection is highly important in spiritual warfare.

It's like the difference between smart bombs and carpet bombing.

And so, making the right decision is highly important.

We want to avoid collateral damage. The wicked will not be justified.

And so, hopefully, as Christians, most of you can identify the heathen for what they are.

Now, some of you might be a little reticent about spiritual warfare.

Warfare truly is an ugly experience.

But, it is a necessary part of life.

Without wars, none of us would be free.

But, we're not going to talk about secular wars.

We're going to talk about spiritual wars.

If you've ever experienced a situation where it felt like everybody was against you for some unknown reason.

Like, you were polite. You were polite. You were nice.

You just came in there to do some shopping and you felt aggressed.

Physically or spiritually.

Then, you understand that the enemy doesn't care if you want to participate or not.

You are a target because of your faith.

You are a target.

You are a target.

You are a target.

You are a target.

And that's at the core of spiritual warfare.

That's what is brought out in the Gospels.

When Jesus was casting out devils and targeting this evil force, it brought this warfare out into the open.

And this was a major part of the ministry.

Now, it doesn't go into a lot of detail about spiritual warfare.

It just says we're at war with what's going on.

It's a war.

It's not like a disagreement.

It's not some kind of misunderstanding.

It's a war.

And there's an enemy.

And this enemy is targeting you.

They're at war.

And all of you will be victims one day or another because of this war.

That's a guarantee.

And that's why people should wake up to this obvious fact and act accordingly.

So, target selection.

Basically, it's a war.

They're not going to have mercy.

You can't really afford to have a lot of mercy in this context.

This isn't about your neighbor messing something up once or twice.

This is about a system that has basically transgressed so many times that it's beyond reason.

Jesus tells us that we should forgive our brothers seven times seventy.

It's finite.

It's not infinite.

It's not infinite.

It's like, okay, it's not just once or twice and that's it.

But we're talking about a lot of times.

And this system as a whole has messed with you well over four hundred and ninety times.

So, this system isn't going to have mercy.

Don't give this system mercy in a war like this.

So, basically, you have to go into the mindset that, okay, you have targets.

This is a war.

Now it's time to participate.

And again, this is spiritual warfare.

This is telekinetics.

We're not saying go out there like Rambo.

Bonds.

This is a war.

And there are targets.

And there are targets that are in this world.

And there are targets that are beyond the veil.

And the veil, again, is the skin of the physical world.

So, it's kind of like when you look at the sky during the day, it looks blue with white clouds.

And then when night comes, all of a sudden you see like what's behind the sky.

It's like that.

What's beyond the veil.

And so, this is a metaphysical world.

Part physical, part spiritual.

And so, part of our targets are what we can see with our eyes wide open.

And part of the targets are what we can see with our third eye, if you will.

And of course, that is a scary concept.

Now, of course, the vernacular is similar to what New Agers would say.

And when Moses was fighting for the freedom of his people, he was basically confronting wizards and sorcerers of the dark side.
And they were performing basically many of the same things that he was doing.
And so, what's the difference between sorcery and what people of faith can do?
Essentially, it's the motive.

The motive is what differentiates us from them.

But, basically, everything that we see out there is being described by the same,
New Babylon language that the heathen use.

So, a chair is a chair for a Christian just like it is for a heathen.

We're not going to say that, well, because the heathens say chair, we're not going to say chair.

Let's just describe things simply so that people can wrap their minds around it.

But, essentially, we're fighting a war that is part physical, part spiritual.

But, essentially, to begin, you really want to focus on the physical.

But, of course, you want to start protecting yourself and preparing shielding materials in case things begin to happen.

And, chances are, things will happen eventually for you because of the nature of the situation.

People are being targeted for much less.

Don't expect that it will be any different for you during this time of tribulation.

And, if you're not facing tribulation, you're probably not doing it right.

So, there's something that's kind of holding you back, like doubt or money or something like that.

You're not all in in spiritual warfare.

If you were, then you'd be facing tribulation right now.

So, you have to prepare for that.

But, once you're good, and we don't mean to downplay the situation, carrying your cross is not a pleasant thing.

Denying yourself is not a pleasant thing.

Being 110% into this is not a pleasant thing.

But, we do it because it must be done.

I think all these people in 1776 or whatever, you know, really wanted to get on the battlefield.

No, they did it because it had to be done.

In any case, target selection.

Heathens, just, you know, for the most part, they're like a city without walls.

You can just pretty much say that they're going to be infected with demons and the like, connected to the hive.

So, essentially, your first tasks are to stamp them with
the recommendation
that these people are
of the dark side.

It's the upside-down cross.

It's

well,

it's got to be something.

It's got to be
you have to associate
an idea with that action.

And this is tough to say.

I mean,

I think I've talked about it in previous podcasts, but essentially it's death for these people.

It's a war.

Upside-down cross.

Death to these people.

And you don't have to shout it or say it.

You just have to think it.

And believing

that that is your recommendation.

If they're guilty,

then that's going to carry a lot of weight.

It's going to be like a boulder on their shoulder crashing down on them.

I want you to imagine that this takes a lot of

meanness,

but

again,

it's a war.

You have to imagine that your finger can extend

and penetrate

that person

or slice that person.

Take some

practice.

At first,

it won't seem like much,
but
believe that you can do it.
Hit target after target.
And
after some practice,
try
being in a dark room.
Fairly dark room.
Close your eyes
and
stick your pointer finger out.
Imagine that you can see light
coming out of it.
open your eyes
in this dark environment
and look at your
and look at your finger
and
imagine
that you can see
something coming out of it.
And wait.
now,
eventually,

you're going to see
something.

But

imagining that you can do it is how

it begins

because

it's about

mind over matter.

It's about

mind

controlling the body

and the spirit

and

focusing it

at a target.

And so,

at first,

you have to imagine it.

I know when you use

the word imagine,

you're like

imagination.

But,

essentially,

this is how

the hardware

is

wired

to work.

you imagine

that you can do it.

You imagine

what it would look like

and

you'll begin to see it.

now,

everything takes practice.

You know,

learning to play the piano

is not like

an overnight

kind of thing here.

And we probably

should have done

this series

like

two years ago

to give people

some

more time.

We tried

talking about it
and maybe
some of you
have thought
about it.

But,
this technique
is absolutely
devastating.

I can guarantee
you that.

Is it like
a magic button?
no.

Does it take time to manifest?

Usually.

And the amount
of time
really kind of
depends on your
spiritual status.

if your aura
is totally
shrunk down
to zero

because of
doubt
and fear
or discomfort
or distractions
or stress,
then
it becomes
really hard
to focus.

just about
any little thing
can basically
kind of
throw you
off.

And
you're not going to be dealing with
little things.

You're going to be
dealing with
major things,
big deals,

life-changing
kind of things.
and so you
have to defend
yourself on
basically every level.

Like the ultimate
ping-pong
match.

And the
stakes are
well,
the stakes are
for everything.

but if you
understand the
concept here,
basically what
we're saying
here is that
with enough
practice,
you'll be able
to hit targets

basically anywhere
in the world
and the known
universe.

And I guess
you just have to look through a
telescope to see
what's known
for yourself.

Millions of people do it.

is it real
or is it not
real is another
story.

based on what
we've experienced,
it definitely
seems like
there's something out
there.

maybe there is

a holodeck
or some
kind of
containment,
but chances
are there's something
outside that.
what that is
is probably
based on what we can see to a
certain extent.
It's hard to
say.
Nobody really
knows for
sure.
And you
basically have
to test out
all the
possibilities.
And that's
why it's

important during
target selection
that you really
take all
possibilities into
account.
don't make
what you're doing
absolute.
Think of it
as recommendations
if they're
guilty.
Because
some people
look like
they're heathens
and they're
not.
sometime a
kid just
comes out of
nowhere and
just jumps in

between you
and the
target.

So
you always hear about
innocent
civilians in
war zones.

It's no
different here.

The question
is how many people are still really
innocent humans
out there.

It's hard to
say.

Obviously none
of us are
innocent but
as far as
who do we
serve,
that's

the
determining
factor.

So you're
either a citizen of
the kingdom
of heaven or you're a
citizen of the dark
side.

And so
it's like
if we were at war with Mexico,
you know,
all these
people are
automatically
enemies,
basically.
That's the
mindset.

That's just
the way it
is.

Practicing in local area
warfare will basically give
you the
tools necessary
to apply
that to
bigger targets.
things.

But again,
the same
ideas apply.

I mean,
you don't really know
what you're
hitting out
there at
first,
but we're going to
coach you

on what's
out there.
essentially,
it's the
most sinister
looking
forms,
entities,
civilizations
that once
existed that are now
basically like
ghosts,
the most sinister
looking
alien races
you've ever
seen,
that remain
as like a
disembodied
head floating
around

trying to kill people.
And in
this world of
telekinetics
beyond the
veil,
essentially
you're dealing with the
core entities
and you're
dealing with
their projections
like
spiritual
drones
in a
sense.
And
basically
these
type of
consciousness
can

project

weapons

of all

different

sorts

just like

we can

project

of

various

sorts.

And we'll

get into

that more

in future

podcasts,

but essentially

if you're

trying to

get ahead

let's just

say old

school

armaments

work best.

there's

basically a

term in

Latin

based

languages,

it's not

really

prevalent

in English,

but

there's

basically

two types

of weapons.

There's

white

weapons

and there's

black

weapons.

And so

knives

and swords

and axes
and things
like that tend to be considered
white
weapons.

And
modern
weapons
are known
as firearms.

So we
call them
firearms
instead of
like black
arms.

But it's
based on
the idea
of white
and black
weaponry.

like a
chessboard.

like the
good guys
versus the bad guys.

But the
bad guys
tend to use
more
kinetic
weapons.

whereas the
good guys
tend to
use more
old school
weapons.

But
essentially
what ends
up happening
and we're just giving

you kind
of like a
real,
you know,
huge preview
in the world
of telekinetics
beyond the
veil,
you're
basically
stabbing
and chopping
up
and
disintegrating
enemy
entities
in
some
other
dimension.
and
you know,
sometimes
you're

chasing
them
down,
sometimes
you're
following
them
as they
move
and
the experience
is quite
exceptional.
it's almost
like
being in
one of these
lucid
dreams
where it's
like virtual
reality

slash

IMAX.

it's not

in that

rich of

detail,

but the

experience is

somewhat like

it.

Almost like

augmented

reality

merging

lucid

dreaming

hardware,

biological

hardware,

into

a more

controlled

environment.

targeting

seems to be somewhat
automatic
when
jumping
beyond
the
veil.
almost
like
plugging
into
an online
game.
The
scene
is already
set
and
you're
just
there

to pull
the
trigger.
Getting
you to
that
level
is
going to require
some
training,
but it
begins
with
local
area
warfare.
So
we'll
leave it
there for this
podcast.
We'll
do

more.

sure to

listen to

the

Bible

every day.

Dramatize

King

James

version,

at least

like an hour a

day,

and it'll

keep you

based.

And

remember that

faith comes

from the

spoken word,

and without

faith,

you're not
justified,
part of
the
team.

don't neglect
your Bible
every
day,
every single
day.

Know it
by heart.
Until the
next time,
if you're
listening to
this,
you are
the
resistance.
