

JEDI TRAINING - DEMON OLOGY 101 (EPISODE 43)

Welcome back to Jedi Training. The title of this podcast is Demonology 101.

When you engage in local area warfare through telekinetics, you're not just affecting the target, you're also affecting the demon that is associated with that target.

And most of the people, hopefully, that you do target will be incubators for demonic entities.

And the more you engage the enemy, the more the enemy will engage you, and you will essentially flush them out into the open.

And especially when we bring you to the Twilight Zone, or if you've had a near-death experience, you're more susceptible to seeing demons for what they are.

And then you want to start attacking them instead of their host.

But that's an ethics debate for another podcast.

But essentially what happens is when you engage in telekinetics, and you start hitting villains out there, like Batman, then the demons that are around you will basically attack in many different ways.

You'll feel them, and eventually you'll see them.

To the point where you'll develop like radar, and you'll get a first impression of a person, and you'll see the demon that resides in them or near them.

And all of these demons that we see on the ground are basically the bottom level of the pyramid.

And in many ways, what we're dealing with is kind of like that symbol on the back of the dollar bill.

The pyramid with this all-seeing eye.

This eye represents an entity that we encounter frequently on the other side.

It's like a sentinel.

It's as commonplace as cars on the highway.

You see them everywhere.

And it's like a race of entities or a projection from some other intelligence.

They act as drones.

They act as terminators.

And they are like agents in the Matrix behind the veil.

And that's where the Twilight Zone brings us, is to go beyond the veil.

And so essentially, what we're looking at on the ground in local area warfare, which you should be hopefully training into right now, what you're looking at on the ground is basically the bottom level of the pyramid.

And beyond them, behind the veil, we basically see a myriad of demons and entities that essentially cascade to the eye.

Now, of course, in biology, we know that the eye is attached to the brain.

And so the eye is but another veil that we have to get around.

This is something that we'll talk about more in future episodes when we bring you into the Twilight Zone.

And we're getting pretty close.

I'm not sure how well prepared you are out there.

Most of you will never be prepared enough.

And nothing will motivate you like some action.

And the only way to get the action is basically to hack the Matrix.

Now, you know, here's a debate that we'll have in this podcast.

In Scripture, Paul tells us that he knew somebody, whether in the body or out of the body, he did not know, that went into the third heaven.

Now, that's Scripture.

You could call that an out-of-body experience, but it could be something else, like a vision.

Kind of like a dream, but you're going places.

Now, the dark side basically does this experience, but to a different location.

And they encounter different things.

And so what we do is we basically hijack that pathway.

We hack into that, like hacking into a website, and we basically seek and destroy.

These entities that are from the ground level to the eyes and beyond are all susceptible to spiritual warfare.

They're very fragile in that respect.

But to get there is half the battle.

And to survive the counterattacks is basically the other half of the battle.

But it begins basically with practicing telekinetics in the local area warfare environment.

And then we can apply that to telekinetics in the twilight zone environment.

And then we can merge the twilight zone to what's happening here and just about everywhere.

And so once you acquire skills for local area warfare, and then when you go into the twilight zone and focus just on entities that are beyond the veil, then the war gets really hot.

Because you'll be going in and out of venues rather quickly.

There's a lot to say about that.

But

the quicker you acquire skills, the more you practice,
the more you engage the enemy, the more you're going to see this all flushed out into the open.

And that's what casting out demons and devils is all about.

It's about bringing the battle into the open.

Every army uses camouflage.

And the dark side doesn't like being exposed, let alone being attacked.

Now the strategy,

the current strategy in this war is basically to attack everything that's higher up in the pyramid

to effect change on the ground level where we find ourselves, basically.

So what's happening on the surface of the earth in terms of politics and just about everything else is a ripple effect

or

part of the command chain

that's coming from the spiritual world.

And seeing it is believing it.

But you have to basically believe to see it.

And that's where scripture comes in.

It's telling you.

Leave doubt behind.

All of this is described in scripture.

And so now we're applying scripture into the real world and beyond.

And

well,

the more you know,

the more you believe,

the more you'll see,

and the more you see,

the more you'll believe,

and the more you'll want to run away.

But there's no running away from this.

This is what we've been trained for all our lives

and we just didn't know it.

And this is the big wake-up call to apply everything that you know as a Christian into spiritual warfare.

it's quite the dilemma.

Do you do it?

Is it okay to do it?

Should you do it?

Et cetera, et cetera.

eventually,

when you get activated,

when they come

knocking on your door,

then you'll look

to survive.

And hopefully,

you'll remember all of this and everything will just kind of like connect

and fuse

and

activate

and off you go.

the more

training that you get,

the better.

your time will come.

You can be in denial now and try and run away,

eventually,

to enter the arena.

And most people don't last very long.

So,

the better it is.

The war is real.

And the more experience you acquire,

the better you'll be

for

the Hunger Games,

if you will.

But it's not easy

and it's no laughing matter

and

we can't stress enough

that you're basically

going to have to be like a Chinaman

in the sweatshop

And

the more of a heads up

that you get

and the more training

and the more support

materials

that you acquire,

the better off you'll be

for

the Spiritual Olympics.

So,

the end game here is basically

to disrupt enemy operations by hacking the Matrix, penetrating the Veil,
and
raiding the enemy in their home territory.

And all of this will make a lot more sense once you see it,
once you see the action, once you experience
the action, then you'll realize
why it's important to raid the enemy
as often as we can and disrupt their activities.

And so,
a lot of people are focusing on the ground level action,
but

the real honey

is beyond the Veil.

and getting there is possible.

And,

that's what

Jedi Training

is all about.

This is just one aspect of warfare,

of course,

and

that's why

it's important to train

in all domains.

But,

what you learn

from Jedi Training

will give you

additional skills

and awareness

in everyday situations.

Once you're activated,
spiritually aware,
you'll know
what's in front of you.

You'll get
like this glitch in the matrix,
first impression that's more than just psychology.

this first impression like you'll see something basically shift in them somehow.

And,

how this shifts really depends on the situation.

But,
their face
can shift,
their eye
can shift
in a real weird way.

Like a glitch
in the matrix.

Like,
you'll be thinking to yourself, did you really see what you thought you saw?

And,
then eventually you'll start

seeing patterns develop,
and you'll
start recognizing what you're actually looking at,
which is you're seeing a demonic presence.
seeing them both at the same time.
And,
in fact,
it's pretty much well understood
that they are forced to show you

who they are.

But,

you don't necessarily get more than just one

look.

like,

never forget

when people

are.

Because,

chances are

they're not going to change back to a normal human anytime soon.

So,

you know,

what do you

do in these situations?
Say you're encountered by a demon in the real world.

Well,
first of all,
they're everywhere.

It's like
sexual orientation.

It's
everywhere.
everywhere.

so,
you can't,
you know,
lose your mind.

You always have to be

cool in all situations.

you will see a lot of
in this vocation.

you have to stay calm
and just accept the diversity of what's out there.

Now, beyond that
a debate.

We've talked about this before.

You can try deliverance.

cast them out.

think it.

say it.

point at them.

rebuke the evil in the name of Jesus
and the lying.

But,
we know what happens even if you're
successful.

the most success is basically going into a church and praying and asking for that person

to be delivered.

many things
are beyond us.

it's always
remember that.

But,
we know that deliverance is basically temporary
for the unsaved.

And,
it doesn't really resolve

the issue.

Now,

you can

try,

and,

you know,

these are

things that I've tried in local area

warfare,

is to try to separate

the two

and attack

the demon.

And,

you try to,

you know,

basically see

their aura,

see if there's anything around

them,

try to push

anything that's in them out.

it's really

use your imagination like a surgeon in a spiritual

kind of way.

You know,

push it out,

pull it out,

with your mind,

even with a little gesture

to help,

to kind of like

boost your intent.

pay attention to the details.

so,

you can try

and separate

boost,

push,
the demon
itself,
you know,
for added
practice, for some bonus,
if you will,
and,
at least try to inflict some damage
at that level.

But,
there's so much activity out there like that right
now.

You know,
spending a whole lot of time just on one little demon

at first seems reasonable,
but then when you see just,
you know,
the scope of the horde,
or of the invasion, you realize that wasting time on just one demon is counterproductive.

We're basically called to go beyond that.

And,
that's where,
you know,
attacking beyond
the veil,
going on missions
or runs

is important because there we're actually hitting targets
that are of more value.

and these things that are higher up in the pyramid basically control more things.

Back in Ephesians chapter
six,
it's about rulerships and principalities, and so basically you're looking
at,
you know,
presidents,
vice presidents,
secretaries,

you know,
bureaucrats,
area managers,
local managers,
you know,
or branch
managers,
down to basically,
you know,
the clerk
at the desk or the employee at the store.

And so,
we're looking at
range of hierarchy.

And so,
essentially,
you know,
our idea here
is to cause more damage,

higher up the food chain,
and,
you know,
hopefully that's
going to
trickle down to us
eventually.

And it
usually does,
but you usually get a lot of blowback
as well.

this is a very terrible
war,
and the consequences
are very real in all regards.

And fighting this fight
means that
basically,
you're putting
on the
front lines,
and you're
going to be taking the blunt force of the attacks in your area.

And,
you know,
this basically
releases pressure
in other areas, because now they have to focus
more on you, instead of focusing on little things.

And so,

the more people

that are involved,

the more

difficult it gets

for the dark

side to manage

the whole

globally,

like a fine-tuned

machine.

We basically

want to throw

monkey wrenches

everywhere we can,

and,

you know,

the more

noise we make,

the more

difficult it is for them to control,

and to dominate.
And that's what the dark side
is all about.
domination,
and
enslavement.
and so,
in order
to do
that,
they basically
need to be able to focus in a certain way where there's really not a whole lot of opposition, especially on the spiritual battlefield.

even just,
you know,
one Jedi
out there,
like a bull
in the china shop,
is a very dangerous thing.
so,
the more
we get,
the better,
basically,
and so that's what we're looking to accomplish, is to get more people

as more people get
out there,
the easier
things will become for the rest of us as a group effort.

That's my hope right
now.

It seems logical,
and,
you know,
if we could have it where basically we get like
20 people

logging in an hour a day into the twilight
zone,
raiding and attacking the enemy, I think this would turn the tide in a very significant way.

personal opinion.

I feel like I've done a lot of damage myself over the past two years.

I've had every incentive to do so
just because,
you know,

they're
basically
trying to take me out in a very,
you know,
discreet
way.

And so,
I know the stakes are real,
and so I've put in the time and the effort
and the
energy to fight,
not only for my life,
but for,
you know,
freedom and humanity in the world

that we

grew up in.

So,

it's not all

self-serving.

I still believe in the cause of fighting

evil and

truth and

justice and

happiness for all.

But when you start

feeling the pressure of

attacks and incoming fire

and realize

that,

you know,

these are

demonic forces

causing your misery and your pain,

then you have a lot more motivation

to try

you've never tried before

and to

go all the way and to stick

with it.

it's tough.

It's like,

you know,

it's like

special ops,

it's like

living in the mud

in a lot of respects
and you basically have to put aside all
worldly things that you love
for the most part and focus on this war.

And so,
you know,
going out
to the nightclub
and all
of that stuff just isn't relevant anymore.

Sad but true.
So,
it's a vocation,
it's a
full-time, 24-hour
job,
basically,
to survive
and to
fight
the dark
side.
We'll get more into all the details as far as how we're going to conduct
raids.
Right now,

I really need you guys to focus on your physical training,
your emotional
endurance,
your spiritual
training,
listening to scripture and gospels and preachers every day and thinking about
it,
going on long walks, thinking about
it,
spending a little time flexing the energy,

third eye,
if you will,
in the real world.

And,
you know,
be careful with extracurricular training on all of these subjects because they're all pathways to
side.

So,
we're using this as a
hack,
not as our religion.

This is not
our religion.

This is just what we do in spiritual
warfare.

It's like
when,
you know,
Moses or any of them were,
you know,
raiding the Canaanites or,
you know,
fighting the Philistines or any of that,
it's not who they were as people.

It's what they had to do to establish peace and security for their people.

And so,
this isn't what we want to do.

It's more or less an obligation at this stage.

So,
take no
pleasure in it.

In any case, we need you guys
to focus
on physical,
spiritual,
emotional
training,
position yourself
financially,
continue to acquire shielding

materials as if the H-bomb was going to drop next door because it basically
is.

And you're going to see things that are, you know,
way out of this world
and it's going to get real spooky,
real crazy.

You're going
to feel,
you know,
real lonely
like Rambo or something
and just

remember

how you

got there,

why you

got there,

who sent you.

It's not

Ron Johnson

that sent

It's Jesus

you.

it's the

Almighty

that sent

you.

you're fighting,

you signed

up for.

citizens of the kingdom

of heaven,
this is about,
this is a
crusade,
it's a
spiritual war between the kingdom of light and
the kingdom
of darkness and we've been conscripted
and either
you feel it
and know it or you don't,
but that's basically what
it's like
doing this because it's
full time,
it's like

being a watchman on the wall
and you have
to be ultra vigilant
basically
there's no such thing as paranoia
in war.
It's just like there's no such thing as paranoia
in hunting.
When you're
out there
hunting, any little sound basically
is a prey.

when you're
out there
hunting,
you hear a little sound, you're not
like,
oh,
that's a conspiracy theory.

to go check it out.

to make sure.

kind of like all
of that
camping
and the
like.

to want
to secure your perimeter.

to want
to make sure that you're
safe.

There's no such thing as being paranoid in these types of situations.

If you pay attention
to wildlife,
any little
noise and it's running
for the
other direction,

it's not
going to take a lot of chances
figure out what's going on and ask stupid questions to win stupid prizes.

run.

Now, we can't always be running
and there really is no running
in this environment.

basically have
to stand
your ground and fight.

only way to fight is through spiritual
warfare and telekinetics.
Anything else
and you're basically off to Rikers Island.
You're off
to the
big house.
missions in the real world are counterproductive
because it
just brings
attention to yourself and
it's usually the wrong
kind of

attention.

attention.

you want to be as safe as you can in that regard

and

basically

focus on

spiritual

warfare.

You'll see that this is the most

life-changing

thing you will ever

encounter.

mock it

and knock

it and be a

skeptic
and all
of that
and think
it's just sheer entertainment until you try it.

And then you
realize just how bad
it is.

And when you see how bad
it is,
then you start
asking to
yourself,
what's going
on?

And if you
persist and survive and you become basically a threat to this enemy, then that's when you really start seeing things that are from out of this world.

really start
asking questions
and you'll
question yourself and you'll be engaged in ways that you never thought possible.

going to be a big,
you know,
the biggest test in your life,
not only

physically and emotionally,
but spiritually.
And it'll get so bad,
you know,
you'll be basically offended
like the disciples.
You'll be offended like
like,
you know,
many other people that just turn away,
run away
when the going gets tough.
And this is,
you know,
the parable of the sower.

When it
talks about,
when Jesus
talks about
tribulation
and people get offended,
you know,
you might have read that and thought to yourself,
well,
that'll never be me.

It's easy to be a believer when you're not challenged physically for your life.

That's basically
the lesson to,
you know,
being offended.

It's easy to be a believer when things are easy.

But when things
get really tough,
then,

you know,
you're quick to break.

And a lot of people do break under torture.

It's not fair.

And that's what this ends up being like is,

you know,
torture.

It's like
carrying your cross.

And,

so,

it's easy to
break under the stress.

You really

strong emotionally
and
be prepared to endure.

That's why,
you know,
train yourself with long
nature walks.

You know,
three,
four,
five hours,
ten hours,
you know,
if you can handle it, depending on your age.

And really kind of push
yourself and,
you know,
prepare for

challenge emotionally,
physically.
and imagine,
you know,
it's,
you know,
it's 1918
or 1914
or,
you know, 1939, 1940,
and you're going into one of these big wars.
You know,
think of everything that you would need,
everything that
you'd be going through now that you've seen,
you know,

you've seen it in the history books
and we all know what the history books are like,
but chances are those wars were real and people suffered and died
and all of that.
You basically have to prepare yourself for all of that without,
you know,
Uncle Sam
there,
you know,
paying your way
and giving you
all the supplies
and giving you
a ride and all of that.
You're basically
Batman out there

in a demonic alien invasion
waging your own,
you know,
personal war against the dark side
and nobody's
coming to help
you.

No backup,
no relief,
no airdrops.

I mean,
you'll get support
in other ways, but you're not
going to,
you know,
you're not really going to be able to call on anybody.

You can call us
and,
you know,
we'll try and

support you
in your area, but eventually,
you know,
things are really
bad and,
you know,
you're going to have to hold the line
yourself and
so you're going to have to be strong,
you're going to
have to be tough to hold the line and to defend
yourself and
it's possible, but it's not easy and,
you know,
most people don't even know what they're dealing with out there

and,
you know,
they don't even stand a chance and they get wiped out for a whole lot less
and,
and,
so,
you know,
there's really no escaping
this one way or another,
so you might as well fight and at least
you know it's coming and you can get better and fight back, but local area

warfare is definitely going to trigger some blowback and
you're going to start seeing things and then this kind of like fuels
the cycle of seeing is believing.

You got there because you
believed.

You got to that point because you believed.

And then
you're going to start seeing
things and
you're going to start feeling
things and
it's going to become real and then you're going to make a choice,

you know,
oh no,
this is too much and I'm going to bail or man,
you know,
I better do more.

And so you're,
you're going to come to that fork or you're going to come to that crossroads
real quick and,
you know,
most people will be offended and
most people,
you know,
will just basically
try to disappear

or run away or something or hide
or, you know, basically compromise
and bargain with
the devil,
anything.

And essentially
there is no surrender.

This is a death
march for humanity
and none of us are going to survive unless we win this war.

It's all or nothing.

It's, you know,
freedom or bust,
basically.

So, we really have to take this seriously.

I wouldn't be covering it and I wouldn't be doing,

you know, a series on it if it wasn't real, if I wasn't 110% confident in what I'm saying here.

And so it is the most real experience ever.

It is the scariest experience ever.

The most thrilling
in a way.

And you really haven't lived until you've seen what's beyond the veil.

And then you, you know, then you just can't take it anymore
and it's like,

what's going on?

And, because it's so much worse than what you might think.

It's so much worse.

So, I've been doing this hardcore
on the other side of the veil for about two years
now.

And,
while we see
some improvement, it seems like
there's still a lot of action out
there.

So, might as well get this experience while you can, while there's still, you know, game to hunt out there.

And, all I can say is that there's, you know, quite a bit.

And, there's probably a lot more left to discover.

And, you know,
we could talk
about this, but again, you're not going to believe it until you see it.

And so, I'm not even going to bother, you know,
really trying to describe all the things that are out there until after we cross over into the twilight zone
together.

And then I'll start dropping
more hints about,
you know, what the

current situation

looks like.

It's shifting.

New enemies are showing up all the time.

Things that we've never seen before.

Old enemies are disappearing.

So, it seems like,

you know, we're going from one

campaign to another

and we're just going up the

pyramid.

And, we'll just see, you know, how serious all of this gets.

Wouldn't be surprised if, you know, we literally

do see a giant

physical alien

invasion one day at this stage
based on the activity that we're seeing behind the veil.

And, you know,
we've got to be uncontrollable.

We are the image bearers of our creator.

We are not going to be subjects
of the dark side.

And so, the entire universe is going to know about planet Earth.

And chances are,
they already do.

Chances are, we're at the center of the universe.

But, we don't know.

We don't really
know.

And that's another
debate, you know,
what's out there.

I think we've talked about it.

We'll talk about it again.

And, like I've said before, it's really important not to rule anything
out.

You know, you can favor, you know,
certain ideas and certain theories and certain perspectives.

There's nothing wrong with favoring something over another.

But, what's important in telekinetics is not

out.

Because, you want to go there and just check.

It's like when you're looking for your keys or something and you, you know, and they're, you know, they're lost pretty bad and you basically have to go from room to room, you know,
checking, you know,
under the couch,
everywhere, you know,
under the sheets, you know, in the closet,
in the bathroom.

You're not going to rule anything out.

When you want to be sure, when you want to find, you know, what you're looking for,
find the enemy, when you want to sweep and clear, you have to be thorough.

You have to go
everywhere.

You can't rule anything out.

So, you know, if you're favoring, you know, flat earth, for example, and you're like, well, there's nothing else out there.

It's all a projection.

Okay, maybe it is.

But, what if there is something out there?

Do you want to rule that out and not check?

So, you basically have to, you know, you have to accept all

possibilities and systematically check

every room, check

every universe, check

every dimension, check every planet, check every, you know, place eventually we'll get
there.

Check every place to see what's out there.
And then you start seeing, for some reason you start seeing what's
out there.

And you start thinking
to yourself, you know, chances are it's not just, you know, a little dome.

Chances are we're looking at something much bigger.

And, you know, that idea can be applied to many other ideas.

So, let's not rule
anything out.

Keep an open mind.

But, what is clear is there is an enemy.

It is spiritual warfare.

It's the pages of the Bible playing out before our very eyes.

And, it's a real war.

And some of it's happening in the physical.

And some of it's happening in other parts of the universe.

And some of it's
happening in a whole other type of reality that is just spiritual in nature.

And so, you know, I guess we'll define all of that with more precision in a future podcast.

But, at this stage,
important to remain focused on where you're at.

So, don't get ahead of yourself because you're just going to get eaten up.

So, be a small fish
for a while swimming in the ocean before you try to, you know, find the, you know, the sharks and the like.

So, be a small fish.

Get a feel for the
environment.

Practice local area
warfare.

It should be safe enough.

But, you know, we're so close to the end
times in a sense.

Or, we're so much closer to the end
that things are much more serious than ever.

You know, 20 years ago, telekinetics,
you know, you might be able to swing it, you know, swing the bat a few times and not face any repercussions.

But, at this stage,
you know, swinging the bat and all of a sudden you might feel the swarm in your area just crash on you.
and, you know, you might freak out.

So, first prepare.

Prepare, prepare,
prepare, train, you
know, and do everything you can to get ready before you start, you know, basically getting

hostile in a spiritual way.

Because as soon as you engage this enemy, then all of a sudden, you know, it gets real bad, real fast and you're not, you don't really have the, if you don't really have the shielding and everything else ready to go, then you're not going to last very long.

So, you want to prepare and give yourself basically a buffer, some leeway to basically adapt and,
you know, all the time
you can give yourself,
the better.

when this all crashed on me like two years ago at 613, while I was experienced in spiritual warfare to a certain extent, nothing like this and, you know, all I can say is that you just don't have, you're never prepared enough.

So, prepare like the zombie apocalypse is coming like the countdowns on television, they're going to release the virus or something like that.

you know, prepare, take it seriously and get yourself as ready as you can for the next level.

And we'll be crossing over to the twilight zone.
We'll start coaching on twilight zone techniques here pretty soon.

and the like.

We'll probably try and do a few more exercises and telekinetics to try to get you to, to get you to have the right form when it comes to, you know, shooting at the enemy.

It's kind of like basketball.

I'm not sure how many, you know, people have ever played basketball like for a team or whatever and you had like a real coach and, you know, they tried to, you know, basically discipline you in technique and you're going to have the right form and you follow through and, you know, you imagine the ball going into the hoop.

It's kind of like that, really.

And so the more we practice, the better we'll be for competition.

So we'll try and do some more practicing.

You know, we can't really drill you the way we want to, like through a podcast kind of scenario, but we'll do what we can and then we'll cross over and then, you know, things either you're going to sink or swim at this stage.

And, you know, you may just want to, you know, stay tuned for, for the info or the entertainment, but it's going to get thick.

Until the next time.

If you're listening to this, you are the resistance.
